++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly dry with variable cloud cover this weekend.

Today:
Some early sunshine towards Suffolk and Essex, but otherwise a good deal of cloud, perhaps bringing some dampness in places. Perhaps a few more cloud breaks developing again later in the day. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry initially, with variable, often large amounts of cloud. Later in the night, some of the cloud may be thick enough to bring a few drizzly showers. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Sunday:
A few early drizzly showers, but these should soon clear to leave a dry afternoon with a greater chance of seeing some sunshine compared to Saturday. Breezy in coastal areas. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Dry with variable cloud and bright or sunny spells on Monday and Tuesday. More cloud by Wednesday with some light and patchy rain chiefly affecting northern counties.
